I went to the mall and had an odd time. First, those 'manacins' really look like real people and one of them was dressed like a peace wizard, so I ran over and hugged it. But, when the head fell off I screamed and the mall cops ran over.

I was warned for making them come over during their lunch break.

Later, I went to get some

hamburgers, but the

I'm a vegetarian, so probably only food was stuff there was a Big Daddy Burger, Meat Burger and stuff Yo Face Burger, I was REALLY mad. so, I picked up a table and threw it at the stand. I ran off, but I was going so fast, I didn't see the fountain in front of me. I ran right into it and the mall cops had to come and pull me out. I went to the carousel and had a fun time riding on

it. But, all of a sudden these big hands pulled me off it and the dude told me I had been on it for three hours. So, I jumped into the little car, where you have to put money inside.

so I got on but the car wouldn't go, so I started banging and screaming for a refund. But, guess who came along but the mall cops. so, now I'm

me hugging the manacin

Movie Review

The Caped Weasel Strikes

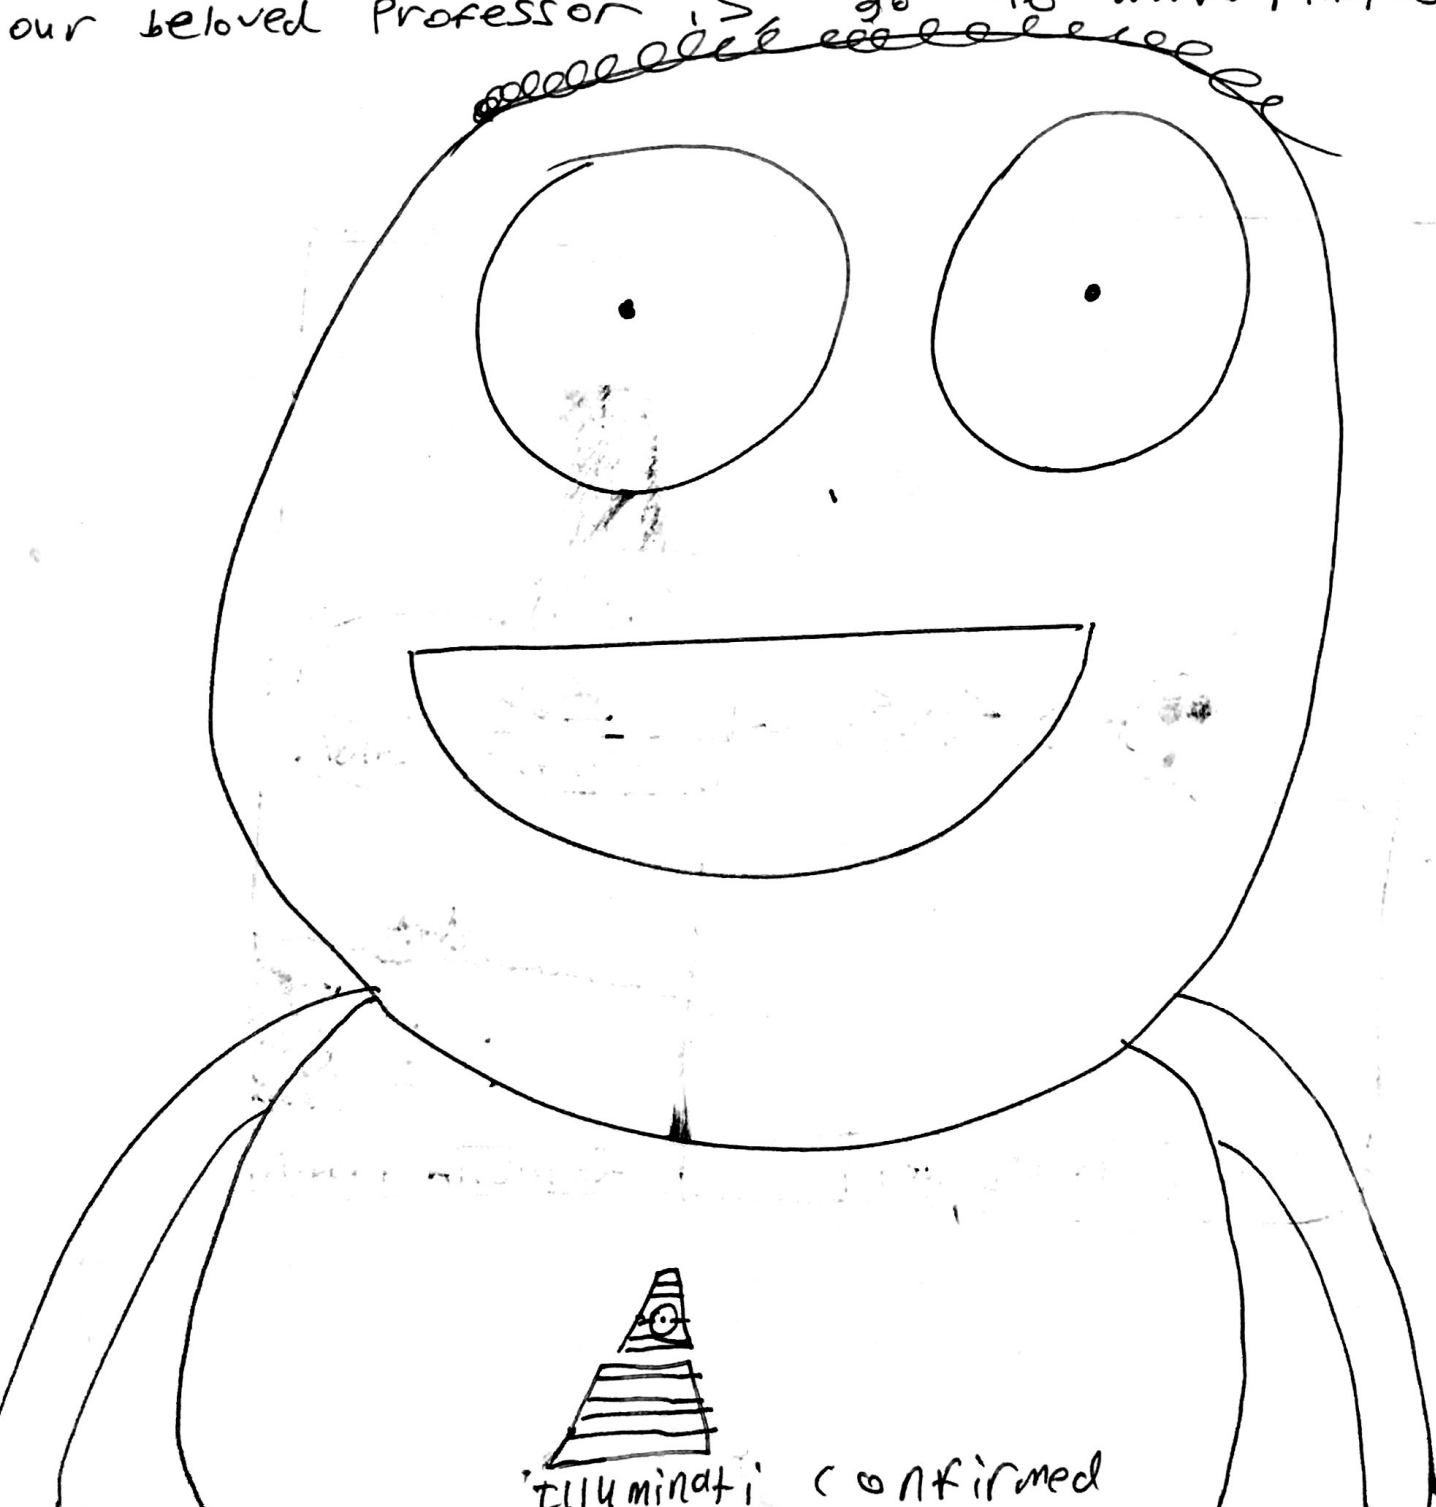

If you want to watch an awful film, then come and watch The Caped Weasel Strikes. The first few minutes are pretty good, but as soon as you see a weasel driving a monster truck, then you get the sense its pretty horrible. I went there to watch it and almost everyone had left by the half hour marker. The movie is way too long. I mean, watching a weasel attacking a lady bug in a nina suit is really boring if you have to watch all 2 and a half of it. The reason its rated PG is because it left someone paralyzed of boredom. Apparently, there will be two more movies, but I am NOT going to watch one ever again.

Able Fable Still Missing, Fish Bones Found

Professor Able Fable has been missing for more than a month and some very bad news was reported yesterday. "I found fish bones next to his laboratory," said Ernie Eel. Also, Albert Alligator has not been seen since the Animal newspaper reported talking to him last week. Benny Bunny said that Sammy Shark has been gone for the same amount of time Able Fable has been missing. If you know anything about where our beloved Professor is ^{go} to www.findfable.sea.

Evedrops

((Umm... I didn't asked for Mouse hair in my soup))

man to waiter at the muffleuff soup House overheard by Boris Nillbagger

Its the holiddays so we'll put all the evedrops from christmas tree farms to putting lights to the house in the three days coming.

- "Look out for that blow up santa! You almost lit it on fire!"

- "I don't think you're supposed to take six trees home with you!"

- "I told you that you should have taken the tree off the car before you drove into the garage!"

- "Hey yeah... the tree fell over and the 26 ornaments from the 1600's all broke."

- "Ooh... that axe really smashed the tree good... and that guy's hand."

- "When I said I wanted a Billobee Doll™ for little sarah, I specifically said it is NOT a Barbie doll!"

- "That is the WORST ornament hanging I have ever seen!"

- "Now, now, its not THAT bad Great Aunt Marse tripped and broke her nose when she tumbled over the little blow up elf!"
