ABLE FABLE REVEALED

The reason of Able Fable's trip out of the lagoon was revealed yesterday. He had gone to have an underwater, jetski, while meditating tennis match. "What is that?" asked J. J. Jellyfish. UJMTA has been around for 26 years and the past three winners have been Bernie Blowfish. However, the Ujmta, a Native American tribe, live in a rural part of New Hampshire and both Ujmta's have been in a legal battle for the past 9 years. Able Fable was playing against Cedric Shark and beat him, 6-2 6-4 6-0 in the Blobfish Classic. Able Fable is ranked 23rd in the standings. No one really knows where do the animals go to play the matches, but some facts lead to Palau, Greenland and the Faroe Islands. "The only problem is that this rock fish, who says his name is Bjorn, keeps on swimming by and says something creepy," Able Fable said. The news was reported on www.UJMTA.fish and it showed all the contestants.

Berry Bear tumbles off bridge

Berry Bear had quite a tumble off the lagoon bridge yesterday. He had been going to find something to eat when he stepped on a loose board and he fell into the lagoon. He was not injured and was just a little bit wet. "It was kind of scary," said an unidentified onlooker.
