

Mules escape farm

26 Mules escaped the Nuffle Farm near sneedle yesterday. The incident occurred around 9:45 AM, when the animals were let out to walk across Humpumpkin Road. A few mules decided to run off and were spotted near Nibbles Road. one of them leaped over a fence and crossed I-368. The mules were recovered after a 5 hour search for one that had gotten stuck in a cranberry bush.

I went on a HART (Hufftuffle Area Rapid Transit) trip and had quite an odd time. First, I have never been on such a trip, so when I put my ticket into the machine, I assumed it did not like it so I put it back in. I found out that this was just wasting dollars off my card. Once the train arrived, I leaped onto the train... and smashed my head on the top of the car. All of a sudden, I saw a man eating a Peace Sandwich, so I jumped at the man and landed in his sandwich. which made me think of my neighbor Willie driving cars. which rhymes with jars. which hold mayonnaise. which was in the sandwich. I ate a bit of it and inside were prunes, cabbage and mayonnaise! peace sandwiches have cheese, celery and ferns!! Then, a man started dancing in the car after we went underground. I told him to stop, but then some dude shoved me under the seat and as soon as I tried to get out, the dancing man smashed onto my face. I screamed and got shoved back under the seat, when someone put some gum in my nose and I hooted as a man who had been hanging on the handles atop the car landed onto me. I needed to get out of there and I found an opening, but I bumped into someones phone and they bopped me on the head. I finally reached my stop and got onto the escalator. when I reached the top, I forgot to lift my shoes and my peace shoelaces caught in the lip between the moving stairs and the top of the escalator. This caused the escalator to stop and make the people on the bottom sit there. I finally got my shoes out and went off to go to my peace meeting. when I came back onto the train, I spotted a man eating chips. I screamed at him to stop and took the chip bag and when we reached Billabo Station, I dumped the bag into the train rails and the man chased me along the train. when we got to Midge Station, I put my ticket into the machine... and did not get it back. I had used all the money off the ticket, but I did not know that right then. so, I attempted to attack the machine and get it back, I then stuck my eye near the slot where the ticket is taken. My hair got stuck in it and that is the reason I am now bald.
